

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FLORIDA SUPREME COURT APPROVED FAMILY LAW FORM 12.915, DESIGNATION OF CURRENT MAILING AND E-MAIL ADDRESS (11/15)

When should this form be used?

This form should be used to inform the clerk and the other party of your current mailing and e-mail address(es) or any change of address. It is very important that the court and the other party in your case have your correct address.

A party not represented by an attorney may choose to designate e-mail address(es) for service. A primary and up to two secondary e-mail addresses can be designated. If you do so and the other party is represented by an attorney or has also designated e-mail address(es) for service, e-mail will be the exclusive means of service.

If there is any change in your mailing or e-mail address(es), you must complete a new form, file it with the clerk, and serve a copy on any other party or parties in your case.

What should I do next?

This form should be typed or printed in black ink. After completing this form, you should file the original with the clerk of the circuit court in the county where your case is filed and keep a copy for your records. A copy of this form must be served on any other party in your case. Service must be in accordance with Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.516.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING E-FILING

The Florida Rules of Judicial Administration now require that all petitions, pleadings, and documents be filed electronically except in certain circumstances. Self-represented litigants may file petitions or other pleadings or documents electronically; however, they are not required to do so. If you choose to file your pleadings or other documents electronically, you must do so in accordance with Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.525, and you must follow the procedures of the judicial circuit in which you file. The rules and procedures should be carefully read and followed.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING E-SERVICE ELECTION

After the initial service of process of the petition or supplemental petition by the Sheriff or certified process server, the Florida Rules of Judicial Administration now require that all documents required or permitted to be served on the other party must be served by electronic mail (e-mail) except in certain circumstances. You must strictly comply with the format requirements set forth in the Rules of Judicial Administration. If you elect to participate in electronic service, which means serving or receiving pleadings by electronic mail (e-mail), or through the Florida Courts E-Filing Portal, you must review Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.516. You may find this rule at www.flcourts.org through the link to the Rules of Judicial Administration provided under either Family Law Forms: Getting Started, or Rules of Court in the A-Z Topical Index.

SELF-REPRESENTED LITIGANTS MAY SERVE DOCUMENTS BY E-MAIL; HOWEVER, THEY ARE NOT

REQUIRED TO DO SO. If a self-represented litigant elects to serve and receive documents by e-mail, the procedures must always be followed once the initial election is made.

To serve and receive documents by e-mail, you must designate your e-mail addresses by using the Designation of Current Mailing and E-mail Address, Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.915, and you must provide your e-mail address on each form on which your signature appears. Please CAREFULLY read the rules and instructions for: Certificate of Service (General), Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.914; Designation of Current Mailing and E-mail Address, Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.915; and Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.516.

Where can I look for more information?

Before proceeding, you should read General Information for Self-Represented Litigants found at the beginning of these forms. The words that are in bold underline in these instructions are defined there.

Special notes...

Remember, a person who is NOT an attorney is called a nonlawyer. If a nonlawyer helps you fill out these forms, that person must give you a copy of Disclosure from Nonlawyer, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.900(a), before he or she helps you. A nonlawyer helping you fill out these forms also must put his or her name, address, and telephone number on the bottom of the last page of every form he or she helps you complete.

NINETEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

MOTION FOR CIVIL CONTEMPT / ENFORCEMENT

THIS PACKET IS DESIGNED TO BE USED TO ASK THE COURT TO ENFORCE A PRIOR ORDER OR FINAL JUDGMENT.

THIS PACKET SHOULD CONTAIN THE FOLLOWING DOCUMENTS:

- INSTRUCTIONS AND FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS
- NOTICE OF LIMITATION OF SERVICES PROVIDED AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT
- CIVIL COVER SHEET
- MOTION FOR CIVIL CONTEMPT/ENFORCEMENT
- FORM A: FAMILY CASE INQUIRY/UPDATE
- FORM B: REQUEST FOR HEARING OF PLEADING / MOTION IN OPEN DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE / CHILD SUPPORT ENFORCEMENT CASE

Read the enclosed instructions carefully and completely. Please be advised that neither the clerk's office, nor the case managers are able to provide legal advice. We can give you the forms and general information; however, you may need to consult with an attorney if you have legal questions.

PRIOR TO filing, you may contact the Clerk's Office for general information, or you may need to consult an attorney. AFTER a case has been opened or re-opened, the case managers may assist you with general information or case status. Please use Form A: Family Case Inquiry/Update or Form B: Request for Hearing of Pleading/Motion in Open Department of Revenue/Child Support Enforcement Case provided in this packet to request status or review of the pending action in your case.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR MOTION FOR CIVIL CONTEMPT/ENFORCEMENT

Purpose: This packet is designed to be used when you believe that a party in your case is not complying with an EXISTING COURT ORDER. This motion is used to request that the Court enforce that order. Only the issues stated in the motion will be discussed at the hearing.

The following is a procedural guide. Please read and follow the instructions carefully.

FORMS:

Motion—Complete every line of the Motion for Civil Contempt/Enforcement.

Civil Cover Sheet – complete this form and file it with your motion. Check the type of case as the type of order for which you are seeking enforcement.

Notice of Limitation of Services Provided - Read this document very carefully and sign the Acknowledgment at the bottom. The signed document must be filed with the Clerk of Court.

Final Disposition Form – complete the top portion of the form. The clerk of court will enter the remainder of the information after your final hearing. This form is used to close your case.

PROCEDURE:

1. Fill out the civil cover sheet and the motion completely. Please type or print the information clearly. Make two (2) copies. One copy is for you. The second copy is for the other party in your case. The case number on your motion should be the same as the order you are asking the court to enforce. The name and current address of the other party, as well as your name, current address, and telephone number MUST be completed. We cannot set your hearing without all of this information.
2. Sign the Motion in front of a notary or a deputy clerk. Submit the original motion and civil cover sheet to the clerk of the court. Along with your original motion you must submit four (4) blank, stamped envelopes. There may be a fee to re-open your case if there is no pending action at the time you file your motion. Consult with the clerk of the court regarding fees.
3. You are responsible for delivering a copy of the motion to the other party. You may do this by mail or hand-delivery. You must certify in the appropriate space at the bottom of the second page that you have delivered a copy of the motion, the party to whom it was delivered, the party's address where it was mailed, and the date it was sent. If you intend to present documents or exhibits to the court during the hearing on your motion, you must also send copies of those documents and/or exhibits to the other party. The other party is entitled to read and inspect all documents or any other exhibits that you may present to the court.
4. Complete and submit either Form A: Family Case Inquiry/Update or Form B: Request for Hearing of Pleading/Motion in Open Department of Revenue/Child Support Enforcement Case provided in this packet to request a hearing or review of your file. You may also complete the form online at www.circuit19.org under the Family Division link. The form will be forwarded to a case manager or to the magistrate's assistant who will set a hearing on the next available court docket. You and the other party in your case will receive an order scheduling the hearing in the mail that will advise you of the date and time. Please allow a MINIMUM of four weeks for the order scheduling the hearing to come to you once you have filed your documents.

5. At the hearing, the party filing the motion will have the burden of proving the facts stated. The other party will have an opportunity to explain their position to the court as well.
6. EXHIBITS AND DOCUMENTATION: If you plan to present evidence to the court in the form of documents or other exhibits, you must bring a complete set of these documents to present to the judge or magistrate at the hearing as well as a copy for the other party or their attorney.

PLEASE NOTE: Any party seeking a court order to have expenses reimbursed must be prepared to present evidence of those expenses at the hearing. Please have bills, receipts or invoices clearly photocopied and stapled together along with a summary sheet. The summary sheet should contain the following information:

- the date of the service or expense
- the name of the service provider
- the type of service provided or type of expense paid
- the total amount of each expense
- the amount of each expense owed by the other party
- the total reimbursement that you are seeking from the other party

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Emergency Motions – All emergency motions must be titled as such and include a statement as to nature of the emergency. If this form is being filed as an emergency, the clerk will forward the motion to the judge's office for review. If the court deems the matter a valid emergency, a hearing will be set and you may be required to have the other party served with the emergency motion and the hearing notice by a sheriff or private process server. For more information on personal service, see the instructions for Summons: Personal Service on an Individual, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.910(a).

Interpreters – The Family Division in the Nineteenth Circuit does not provide interpreters for hearings. If you cannot speak English well enough to participate in the hearing and understand the judge's questions, you will need to bring an interpreter with you at your own expense. If you do not bring an interpreter with you (someone other than your spouse) your hearing may be rescheduled to a later date. The judge cannot proceed with the hearing if you cannot understand what is being asked or discussed in the courtroom.

Legal Advice – Legal advice may only be provided by a licensed attorney. Court personnel are prohibited by law from giving you legal advice. Many times legal issues are complex. A lay person may not always know or understand what is in their best interest, or the best interest of their children. The forms included in this packet are designed to allow you to represent yourself in a legal action. You, alone, are responsible for the content of the documents that you sign. The court personnel, including the judge, cannot help you decide what to do or suggest what actions you might take in your situation. YOU ARE CAUTIONED TO SEEK THE ADVICE OF A LICENSED ATTORNEY IN ALL MATTERS.

Additional Forms – Some situations may require the use of forms that are not provided in this packet. You may find additional forms on the State Court's website at www.flcourts.org, Family Law Forms.

Frequently Asked Questions by Self-Represented Litigants

1. When is my hearing?

Cases are reviewed by case managers in the self-help program. If the case is ready for a hearing, it is set on the first available docket and parties are notified by mail. Due to both legislatively mandated budget cuts in the case manager office as well as the large number of filings in the four counties of the circuit, it may take time for your case to be set for hearing.

2. Where do I find the forms I need?

Forms are available online in the Self-Help section of the Florida State Courts website at http://www.flcourts.org/gen_public/family/forms_rules/index.shtml (spaces in the web address are underscored). Additionally, forms are located in each of the clerks' offices in the four counties for a fee:

Indian River County Clerk of the Circuit Court
2000 16th Avenue
Vero Beach, Florida 32960
(772) 770-5185

100 East Ocean Boulevard
Suite 200
Stuart, Florida 34994
(772) 288-5660
<http://clerk-web.martin.fl.us/ClerkWeb/>

Okeechobee County Clerk of the Circuit Court
312 North West 3rd Street
Okeechobee, Florida 34972
(863) 763-2131

Saint Lucie County Clerk of the Circuit Court
201 South Indian River Drive
Fort Pierce, Florida 34950
(772) 462-6910
<http://www.slclerkofcourt.com/>

3. Where do I file my completed forms?

All forms should be filed at the clerk's office in the county of your case (contact information for each of the clerks' offices is available in question 2) and a copy should be provided to the other party according to Florida Law and Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure.

4. How much are the filing fees?

Questions regarding filing fees should be directed to the clerk's office in the county of your case. See the answer to question 2 for locations and contact information for the clerks' offices.

5. How can I schedule a mediation with the 19th Judicial Circuit's Mediation Program?

Both parties must submit a completed Financial Affidavit before the case can be referred. If the combined gross annual income of both parties is less than $100,000.00 then the case manager may refer the case to the 19th Judicial Circuit Mediation Program. The mediation program case manager will submit an Order for Mediation for the judge's signature. Once the judge has signed the Order, the mediation program will schedule the mediation and provide written notification of the date, time, and location of the mediation.

6. I have no attorney but the other party does – how do I set a hearing?

The self-represented litigant will need to contact the judge's office and request available hearing dates from the judicial assistant. You will then need to contact the attorney's office to coordinate the date with the attorney. Once a date has been agreed upon, you will need to call the judicial assistant again to reserve the hearing date. To shorten this process, you may request the judicial assistant to conference the attorney's office into your initial call to the judicial assistant. You will then need to complete a Notice of Hearing and provide it to the clerk's office, attorney's office, and judicial assistant. A Notice of Hearing is available on the Florida State Courts website at http://www.flcourts.org/gen_public/family/forms_rules/index.shtml (spaces in this web address are underscored).

7. I need to speak to the judge or magistrate about my case – how do I contact their office?

Judges and magistrates are not permitted to speak to parties about their case outside of the courtroom. If you have an issue you need addressed by the court, you must file a proper pleading and, if appropriate, a hearing will be scheduled.

8. How long will it take for me to get a divorce?

There are many factors (such as minor children, property, assets, etc.) which add to the length of time an action takes to get to a final hearing, but, generally speaking, most uncontested cases (cases in which the parties sign and file an agreement resolving all issues) are set for a final hearing within 90 days from the filing date. Due to both legislatively mandated budget cuts in the case manager office as well as the large number of filings in the four counties of the circuit, contested cases may take significantly longer to get to final hearing.

9. What is a magistrate?

A magistrate is an attorney who hears cases referred by a judge and acts in a quasi-judicial capacity. In our Circuit, magistrates hear post-judgment family cases (that is, they do not hear any cases such as divorce or establishment of paternity). The magistrate hears the cases and provides recommendations to the judge. An Order of Referral is sent to all parties of a case before the case is heard by the magistrate, and the parties must agree that the magistrate can hear the case. An Order of Referral contains the following language:

A REFERRAL TO A GENERAL MAGISTRATE REQUIRES THE CONSENT OF ALL PARTIES. YOU ARE ENTITLED TO HAVE THIS MATTER HEARD BEFORE A JUDGE. IF YOU DO NOT WANT TO HAVE THIS MATTER HEARD BEFORE THE GENERAL MAGISTRATE, YOU MUST FILE A WRITTEN OBJECTION TO THE REFERRAL WITHIN 10 DAYS OF THE TIME OF SERVICE OF THIS ORDER. IF THE TIME SET FOR THE HEARING IS LESS THAN 10 DAYS AFTER THE SERVICE OF THIS ORDER, THE OBJECTION MUST BE MADE BEFORE THE HEARING. IF THIS ORDER IS SERVED WITHIN THE FIRST 20 DAYS AFTER SERVICE OF PROCESS, THE TIME TO FILE AN OBJECTION IS EXTENDED TO THE TIME WITHIN WHICH A RESPONSIVE PLEADING IS DUE. FAILURE TO FILE A WRITTEN OBJECTION WITHIN THE APPLICABLE TIME PERIOD IS DEEMED TO BE A CONSENT TO THE REFERRAL.

REVIEW OF THE REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS MADE BY THE GENERAL MAGISTRATE SHALL BE BY EXCEPTIONS AS PROVIDED IN RULE 12.490(f), FLA. FAM. L. R. P. A RECORD, WHICH INCLUDES A TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDINGS, MAY BE REQUIRED TO SUPPORT THE EXCEPTIONS.

If there are no exceptions to the recommendations of the magistrate timely filed by the parties, the recommendations are forwarded to the judge to be signed as an Order.

10. What should I bring to court and what am I supposed to do?

- Dress appropriately for court
- Be on time for your hearing
- Both parties should attend scheduled hearings
- Remain calm
- Speak directly to the judge or the magistrate
- Listen to the judge or the magistrate and do not interrupt someone when he/she is speaking – each party will have time to speak
- The court can only hear matters that have been properly filed and are scheduled for hearing, so stay focused on the issues that are in the pleading and scheduled for that hearing
- Do not bring your children to court with you unless you have been ordered by the judge to have the children present. If you bring your children you will need to have someone who can supervise them outside of the courtroom while your case is being heard.
- Bring your valid Florida Drivers License, Florida Voter's Registration Card, or valid Florida Identification Card with you
- Bring any documents you think may be necessary for your case depending on the issues that have been identified in the petition or motion (such as receipts, bills, proof of real estate, copies of checks, etc. – see Chapter 90 "Evidence Code" Florida Statutes for more information)
- Know what you want before the hearing and be able to explain to the judge or magistrate why it is you want it
- Ask questions if you do not understand what is going on – you should leave the hearing knowing what happened

11. I need an interpreter for the hearing – what should I do?

If you need a foreign language interpreter to fully participate in your hearing, it is your responsibility to bring a qualified interpreter as the Court does not provide a foreign language interpreter free of charge for family law cases.

If you need a sign language interpreter for your hearing, please contact the ADA Coordinator at (772) 807-4370.

12. What does "pro se" mean?

"Pro se" is another term for someone who represents himself or herself in court. It is still your responsibility to be aware of laws and legal rules before appearing in court as neither the judge, magistrate, case managers, clerks, nor other court personnel are allowed to give you any legal advice. Additional information and links are available on our Self Help Program/Self-Represented Litigants webpage. If possible, it is best to consult with an attorney before appearing in court.

13. How does the Court calculate child support?

There are a number of factors that could affect the amount of child support that is ordered, but generally child support is calculated based on guidelines provided in §61.30 Florida Statutes.

14. How is child support paid?

There are three options for payment of child support: direct pay (one parent is ordered to pay the child support directly to the other parent), state disbursement unit (one parent is ordered to send payments to the state disbursement unit who then sends the payment to the other parent), and Income Deduction Order (this is an Order entered by the Court that is sent to the employer of the parent ordered to pay with an amount that must be deducted from the parent's paycheck and sent to the state disbursement unit – the state disbursement unit then sends the payment to the other parent). Florida law requires that all child support payments must be paid through the state disbursement unit unless both parties agree to have it paid directly. Self-represented litigants whose pleadings include issues of child support should consider which option would work best for their situation – this information should be explained to the judge or magistrate during the hearing so that the best solution can be worked out for the parties and entered into an Order.

15. I received an Order to File directing the other party to file a document(s) – how do I know if the other party has done this?

As noted in question 3, all documents should be filed with the clerk's office in the county of your case and a copy should be provided to the other party in the case according to Florida Law and Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure. If you have questions or concerns about what has been filed, you can contact the appropriate clerk's office to see what has been filed by the other party (contact information for each of the clerk's offices is available in question 2).

16. My hearing is scheduled, but I cannot wait that long and need an earlier date – what should I do?

You may call the office of the judge or magistrate, as applicable, and request an earlier hearing date. However, an earlier hearing date may not be available.

17. I have a Final Judgment/Order directing the other party to pay child support, participate in time sharing, etc. The other party has not done this – what should I do?

If you believe that the other party has not complied with what was ordered and you are seeking relief, you must file a proper pleading with the clerk's office. The pleading will be scheduled for a hearing before a judge or magistrate. It is your responsibility to provide proof or evidence that the other party has not complied with the Order. Please refer to question 10 for information about what you should bring to Court and what you are supposed to do. You may also see the Florida Supreme Court approved forms and instructions at http://www.flcourts.org/gen_public/family/forms_rules/index.shtml (spaces in this web address are underscored) to determine the proper form to complete and file.

18. I have been ordered to take a parenting course – why do I have to do this?

Florida Statute § 61.21\(4\) requires that all parties to a dissolution of marriage with children or a paternity action that involves issues of parental responsibility are required to complete a parenting course before a Final Judgment is entered. The court may hold any parent who fails to attend this required parenting course in contempt and impose appropriate sanctions. A current list of approved parenting course providers is located at this website: <http://www.myfloridafamilies.com/docs/ParentEducationFamilyStabilizationCourseProvidersList.pdf>.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FLORIDA FAMILY LAW RULES OF PROCEDURE FORM 12.928, COVER SHEET FOR FAMILY COURT CASES (11/13)

When should this form be used?

The Cover Sheet for Family Court Cases and the information contained in it neither replace nor supplement the filing and service of pleadings or other documents as required by law. This form shall be filed by the petitioner/party opening or reopening a case for the use of the clerk of the circuit court for the purpose of reporting judicial workload data pursuant to Florida Statutes section 25.075.

This form should be typed or printed in black ink. The petitioner must file this cover sheet with the first pleading or motion filed to open or reopen a case in all domestic and juvenile cases.

What should I do next?

Follow these instructions for completing the form:

- I. Case Style. Enter the name of the court, the appropriate case number assigned at the time of filing of the original petition, the name of the judge assigned (if applicable), and the name (last, first, middle initial) of the petitioner(s) and respondent(s).
- II. Type of Action /Proceeding. Place a check beside the proceeding you are initiating. If you are simultaneously filing more than one type of proceeding against the same opposing party, such as a modification and an enforcement proceeding, complete a separate cover sheet for each action being filed.
 - (A) Initial Action/Petition
 - (B) Reopening Case. If you check "Reopening Case," indicate whether you are filing a modification or supplemental petition or an action for enforcement by placing a check beside the appropriate action/petition.
 1. Modification/Supplemental Petition
 2. Motion for Civil Contempt/ Enforcement
 3. Other – All reopening actions not involving modification/supplemental petitions or petition enforcement.
- III. Type of Case. Place a check beside the appropriate case. If the case fits more than one category, select the most definitive. Definitions of the categories are provided below.
 - (A) Simplified Dissolution of Marriage- petitions for the termination of marriage pursuant to Florida Family Law Rule of Procedure 12.105.
 - (B) Dissolution of Marriage - petitions for the termination of marriage pursuant to Chapter 61, Florida Statutes, other than simplified dissolution.
 - (C) Domestic Violence - all matters relating to injunctions for protection against domestic violence pursuant to section 741.30, Florida Statutes.

- (D) Dating Violence - all matters relating to injunctions for protection against dating violence pursuant to section 784.046, Florida Statutes.
- (E) Repeat Violence - all matters relating to injunctions for protection against repeat violence pursuant to section 784.046, Florida Statutes.
- (F) Sexual Violence - all matters relating to injunctions for protection against sexual violence pursuant to section 784.046, Florida Statutes.
- (G) Stalking-all matters relating to injunctions for protection against stalking pursuant to section 784.0485, Florida Statutes
- (H) Support - IV-D - all matters relating to child or spousal support in which an application for assistance has been filed with the Department of Revenue, Child Support Enforcement under Title IV-D, Social Security Act, except for such matters relating to dissolution of marriage petitions (sections 409.2564, 409.2571, and 409.2597, Florida Statutes), paternity, or UIFSA.
- (I) Support-Non IV-D - all matters relating to child or spousal support in which an application for assistance has not been filed under Title IV-D, Social Security Act.
- (J) UIFSA- IV-D - all matters relating to Chapter 88, Florida Statutes, in which an application for assistance has been filed under Title IV-D, Social Security Act.
- (K) UIFSA - Non IV-D - all matters relating to Chapter 88, Florida Statutes, in which an application for assistance has not been filed under Title IV-D, Social Security Act.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FLORIDA SUPREME COURT APPROVED FAMILY LAW FORM 12.960, MOTION FOR CIVIL CONTEMPT/ENFORCEMENT (11/15)

When should this form be used?

You may use this form to ask the court to enforce a prior court order or final judgment.

What should I do next?

To initiate a civil contempt/enforcement proceeding against a party who is not complying with a prior court order, you must file a motion with the court explaining what the party has failed to do. This form should be typed or printed in black ink. After completing this form, you should sign it before a notary public or deputy clerk. You should then file the original with the clerk of the circuit court in the county where your case was filed and keep a copy for your records.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING E-FILING

The Florida Rules of Judicial Administration now require that all petitions, pleadings, and documents be filed electronically except in certain circumstances. Self-represented litigants may file petitions or other pleadings or documents electronically; however, they are not required to do so. If you choose to file your pleadings or other documents electronically, you must do so in accordance with Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.525, and you must follow the procedures of the judicial circuit in which you file. The rules and procedures should be carefully read and followed.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING E-SERVICE ELECTION

After the initial service of process of the petition or supplemental petition by the Sheriff or certified process server, the Florida Rules of Judicial Administration now require that all documents required or permitted to be served on the other party must be served by electronic mail (e-mail) except in certain circumstances. You must strictly comply with the format requirements set forth in the Rules of Judicial Administration. If you elect to participate in electronic service, which means serving or receiving pleadings by electronic mail (e-mail), or through the Florida Courts E-Filing Portal, you must review Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.516. You may find this rule at www.flcourts.org through the link to the Rules of Judicial Administration provided under either Family Law Forms: Getting Started, or Rules of Court in the A-Z Topical Index.

SELF-REPRESENTED LITIGANTS MAY SERVE DOCUMENTS BY E-MAIL; HOWEVER, THEY ARE NOT REQUIRED TO DO SO. If a self-represented litigant elects to serve and receive documents by e-mail, the procedures must always be followed once the initial election is made.

To serve and receive documents by e-mail, you must designate your e-mail addresses by using the Designation of Current Mailing and E-mail Address, Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.915, and you must provide your e-mail address on each form on which your signature appears. Please CAREFULLY read the rules and instructions for: Certificate of Service (General), Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.914; Designation of Current Mailing and E-mail Address, Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.915; and Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.516.

A copy of this form must be personally served by a sheriff or private process server or mailed,* e-mailed*, or hand delivered to any other party(ies) in your case. *Please note that if notice is mailed or e-mailed, the court in certain circumstances may not consider mailing or e-mailing, to be adequate notice. If you want to be sure, you should have the motion personally served. This is a technical area of the law; if you have any questions about it, you should consult a lawyer. For more information on personal service, see the instructions for Summons: Personal Service on an Individual, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.910(a).

The court will then set a hearing. You should check with the clerk of court, judicial assistant, or family law intake staff for information on the local procedure for scheduling a hearing. Once you know the time and date of the hearing, you will need to complete Notice of Hearing on Motion for Contempt/Enforcement, Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.961, or, if applicable, Notice of Hearing (Child Support Enforcement Hearing Officer), Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.921, or [Notice of Hearing Before] General Magistrate, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.920[(c)], which will specify a time and place for a hearing on the issue. A copy of this form must be mailed, e-mailed, or hand delivered to the other party. Again, if notice is mailed, the court in certain circumstances may not consider mailing or e-mailing to be adequate notice. If you want to be sure, you should have the notice personally served. This is a technical area of the law; if you have any questions about it, you should consult a lawyer. For more information on personal service, see the instructions for Summons: Personal Service on an Individual, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.910(a).

At the hearing, as in any other civil proceeding, you, as the moving party, will have the burden of proving the other party has not obeyed a prior court order. Once noncompliance is established, the other party will have an opportunity to show an inability to comply with the prior court order. If he or she is unable to do so, the judge may find the other party to be in contempt. If so, the judge may order appropriate sanctions to compel compliance by the other party, including jail, payment of attorneys' fees, suit money, or costs, and coercive or compensatory fines, and may order any other relief permitted by law.

Where can I look for more information?

Before proceeding, you should read "General Information for Self-Represented Litigants" found at the beginning of these forms. See also section 61.14, Florida Statutes and rule 12.615, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure.

Remember, a person who is NOT an attorney is called a nonlawyer. If a nonlawyer helps you fill out these forms, that person must give you a copy of Disclosure from Nonlawyer, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.900(a), before he or she helps you. A nonlawyer helping you fill out these forms also must put his or her name, address, and telephone number on the bottom of the last page of every form he or she helps you complete.
